III. Other Business

A. Tony Kirchner – CAEP update. He sent out an email with all updates. CAEP requires a “Diversity Plan”. He has a draft that will be submitted to the PEC for suggestions/approval. Formative Feedback – meetings will be schedule with Faculty and Staff. It is an easy read. PRD – process is almost complete with all programs in line. CAEP points will be sent out within the next few days. These are not “talking” points. CAEP will be visiting three schools within the Bowling Green/Warren County school system as well as the WKU Regional campuses.

B. Dr. Evans – Frankfort update. Senate Bill 257 could end public school as we know it today. Dyslexia Bill will impact CEBS. Essential Skills Bill will impact p-12. Military Bill – if you have served in the military for six years, pass a test and complete an internship then you will become a teacher. Teacher Certification – if teacher is called into military duty and is teacher certified then they will not lose any time accrued. EPSB may be put under KDE with restructuring.

C. Josiah Super will be receiving all proposals and completing the agenda for the April meeting in the absence of Lorie Ryan.

Stewart motion to adjourn at 4:05pm.
