Other Business

▪Sam Evans spoke about the CEPTS Project (Clinical Experiences and Practices in Teaching). This is a collaboration between Potter College, the School of Teacher Education and Educational Administration, Leadership and Research which involves History and English co-teaching. Sylvia Dietrich and Tamara VanDyken both spoke about this.

▪Sam Evans informed the Council that a prospectus was submitted on the Vanguard Project in February and ours was high on the list. There will be a series of meetings coming up about this both for the baccalaureate and masters levels.

▪This was Ellen Gott's last PEC meeting as she will be moving to Charleston, South Carolina. Her last day is May 9th. Everyone wished Ellen the best. A search is being done to fill her position.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned at 3:55 p.m.

Susan Krisher, Council Secretary
