

Duncan Hines

Duncan Hines was born on March 26, 1880 in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Hines was first known for his travel guides that included reviews of restaurants, hotels, and vacation spots. These businesses wanted Duncan Hines to visit and give them a favorable review so that they could say they were "Recommended by Duncan Hines."

Though he is best known for his cake mixes, Duncan Hines also produced other items like ice cream, BBQ sauce, and grills.

Did you know?

Duncan Hines decorated his dining room with ceramic pigs that he received as gifts. There are some pigs in the exhibit!
