

First Reading: October 10th, 2017
Second Reading: October 17th, 2017
Pass:
Fail:
Other:

Bill 16-17-F. Funding for the Interfaith Workshop on Sustainability and Social Justice

PURPOSE: For the Student Government Association of Western Kentucky University to allocate $200 from Senate Discretionary to support the Interfaith Workshop on Sustainability and Social Justice, which will be held on February 17, 2018.

WHEREAS: The Workshop is being held to meet questions about religion that engage the problems of life in an era of climate change, and life in culturally diverse American cities like Bowling Green, Kentucky, and

WHEREAS: The organizers request a student representative from SGA, which will be a great opportunity for the group to learn from over 200 visitors from the local area about how we can tackle problems of climate change and social justice on our own campus, and

WHEREAS: All the money will go towards breakfast, drinks, lunch, sponsoring students, and a small honorarium for a local musician, and

WHEREAS: All unspent funding will be returned to Senate Discretionary.

THEREFORE: Be it resolved that the Student Government Association of Western Kentucky University will allocate $200 from Senate Discretionary to support the Interfaith Workshop on Sustainability and Social Justice.

AUTHORS: Ian Hamilton, Senator-at-Large
Deekshita Madas, Senator-at-Large

SPONSOR: Sustainability Committee
Committee for Diversity and Inclusion

CONTACTS: Bella Mukonyora, Professor of Religion and Theology